WASHINGTON.

- 250 401 Drinking cup. The body round and of cocoanut. Solid silver stand and rim encircling top. Engraved date (1787). 4 inches high. Rare and valuable.
- 50 402 Locket containing Washington's hair.
- 50 403 Portrait of one of Washington's staff officers, but who I am unable to determine. Painted on ivory. Oval. Cracked; but otherwise perfect. Size  $1\frac{1}{8} \times 1\frac{1}{8}$ . Very old, and I believe genuine. The above three lots are the property of John Bessonett, of Philadelphia, who is a direct descendant of the well-known Huguenot family of that name, who were driven from England and settled in the upper part of New York State. They came into the possession of Mr. Bessonett through Phoebe Dickenson, who also was a descendant of the same family, and was given to her by the unknown staff officer mentioned above, and to whom the cup and locket were presented by General Washington as a mark of his esteem. These facts Mr. Bessonett declares to be true; in fact, they need no guarantee, as the lots described bear sufficient evidence of their originality.
